

Nik Clark recommends ...

Dead Water Zone

Kenneth Oppel

Sci-Fi

I recommend this book to a person who likes a book with sci-fi, adventure, and a little bit of mystery. Found in the library.

This book is about two kids name Paul and Sam. For as long as Paul can remember, he has been looking after, his younger and weaker brother Sam. But on one morning, Sam leaves home and he goes to work as a research assistant in Watertown, all of a sudden he disappears into the dark folds of the city. Read the book to find out if Sam makes it out or will he be too late?

