

Colin Donnelly Recommends...

Codename Zero

Chris Rylander

Science Fiction

I recommend this book to someone who likes spies, sweet gadgets, stopping villains, and not being caught or exposed while gathering information. Found at KDL library (I don't know if it is at the school library.)

Carson Fender, a seventh grade prankster, has lived in North Dakota for his entire life, going to the same boring school every day, the same boring movie theater every week, the same boring state fair every year. Nothing ever changes, and nothing ever happens. Until today when a desperate man hands him a package with a dire set of instructions. And that package leads Carson to discover that there's a secret government agency operating in his small, quiet North Dakota hometown. And that this agency needs his help. Will he defeat the villains, or get captured? Read Codename Zero to find out.