Realistic Fiction

I recommend curveball to someone who is into baseball, high school romance and photography. Curveball is a story about a boy name Peter and his best friend AJ. Both of the young boys play baseball and are the best on the team. Pete the pitcher, and AJ the catcher. Peter is living the life about to be the freshman jock after summer is over. But Peter damages his wrist and his grampa is losing his memory. Will Pete ever play baseball again? Will his grampa recover? Read the book to find out!
