

Sam V. Recommends.....

Flight to Heaven

By: Dale Black

Genre:Biography

I recommend this book to anyone who likes a true story. I found this book in Barnes and Noble, I don't know where else you can get it.

This book is a biography that Dale Black is telling about what happened to him. He was a commercial pilot and he has flown all around the world. One flight changed his life forever. He got in a plane crash when him and his two friends were flying over a monument, they crash and he survived. He wanted to go back to flying school, so he did. His friend took him flying for the first time since the crash and he wanted to fly but he was too scared. The doctor tells him life changing news and he grows closer to God. He talks about his journey to heaven. read more to find out what happens.

