

Reese Brown Recommends the book...

Jennifer Murdley's Toad

By: Bruce Coville

Fiction

Jennifer Murdley's Toad is an oldie a goodie. (Quote from the little rascals.) It is fiction book. Jennifer Murdley's Toad is about a girl named Jennifer who buys a toad from Mr. Elive's magic shop. Her normal, fun life takes a sudden turn for the crazy. Her new best friend becomes Bufo a "tongue toad" who can speak in any voice and imitate any sound. Bufo uses his vocal talents to help Jennifer get back at the schools bully. Jennifer soon discovers not only is it bad that she is trying to get back at the school bully, with a magic toad but, Bufo is also being persuaded into helping "a certain someone" steal "a certain something," hidden "a certain somewhere." Will Bufo spill the beans? Will Jennifer Murdley get back at the schools bully? I guess you have to read the book to find out.

but a