

Emma Marsman recommends ...

Ruined

Paula Morris

Mystery

I recommend this book to a person who likes mystery, ghosts, and a little bit of a love story. This is the book for you.

Found in the library.

In this book the main character Rebecca is from New York. Her father and Rebecca stay at Rebecca's "aunts" place for a little in New Orleans. As Rebecca meets new friends and goes to new places she starts to like it there. Her main friends is Lisette, they become great friends and face a bunch of problems along the way that they may or may not overcome. To figure out these problems and who Rebecca has to face to save her life. Read Ruined to figure it out.