The Only Thing To Fear

I Recommend this to people who like Sci Fi because it is about genetically engineered super soldiers..Zara is a young teenager who helps her only relative, her Uncle around it is called The Only Thing To Fear and the author is Caroline Tung Richmond. Zara Lives in the eastern american territories.Under the iron rule of nazis, the government strives to maintain a master race, controlling everything from jobs to genetics. Zara dares to dream of an america she's only read about in banned books - a land of freedom and equality.
