Mystery

I recommend this book to a person who likes excitement, mystery, suspense, and action. Found in the library.

In this book, Mo Lebeau is looking for her upstream mother who dropped her in the river eleven years ago. But while Mo is in the work of her upstream mother mystery, there is a murder in Tupelo Landing. Mr. Jesse is found dead in his rowboat down the stream. Mo and Dale decide to find out who this murderer is but someone gets in their way. Detective Joe Star and his assistant decide to take the mystery and find the murderer by themselves. Can Mo's life get any worse? Yes, it does, after a car crash, a hurricane, a kidnapping and a bank robbery. Also, Dale is the prime suspect for the murder of Mr. Jesse. Mo and Dale find some clues to figure out this mystery but will the clues be enough? Will they find Mr. Jesse's murderer? Will Mo find her real mother? Find out in Three Times Lucky.
